A Favorite: Heritage Displays

Share things from your family culture with us!

We will display costume, scarves, books or anything you would like to share for our heritage display table. We are organizing a heritage exhibition reflecting on the theme

"New year celebration in different culture"

PTA will provide the material for all students.

Be creative & help your child to make a poster on New year celebration around the world.

Students must submit all the posters

By January 13 to classroom teachers

Entertainment Around the World 7:15 in the Gym

Students, teachers and parents take us to all different countries with their singing, dancing and music. In the past, ESL students, the 1st and 4th graders, Japanese mothers and students, Bennett Foreign Language students, Irish dancers, Korean parents and many others have entertained us. How about you or someone you know? Even a demonstration of an instrument would be great!

Yes, I would like to be a part of the multicultural entertainment. I will _____
